Vehr Communications Announces Modern Office Methods as New Client

Assists with media relations and corporate communications counsel

CINCINNATI (OH) – August 17, 2009: Vehr Communications, a Cincinnati-based strategic communications firm, is pleased to announce the addition of Modern Office Methods (MOM) to its client roster. Vehr Communications is assisting the Blue Ash-based document management solutions company with media relations, corporate outreach and corporate communications counsel.

“Family-owned companies are an important part of the fabric of our business community and MOM is one of the best. The company is always innovating to find new products and service programs to meet the needs of the customers,” states Nick Vehr, founder and CEO of Vehr Communications. “This is a company with a fabulous work ethic and a fun and energetic corporate personality. It is truly an honor to leverage communication opportunities on MOM’s behalf and tell the company’s story.”

MOM is one of the leading office equipment dealers in Ohio, Northern Kentucky and Southeastern Indiana. It was recently named 2009 Dealer of the Year by imageSource, the leading publication in the print management industry. The publication also recognized MOM for its Outstanding Service Program. MOM was selected as a finalist in the Cincinnati Business Courier’s 2008 Best Places to Work competition. The Goering Center for Family and Private Business also recently named MOM a finalist for Family Business of the Decade. MOM has offices in Cincinnati, Dayton, Columbus and Zanesville, Ohio.
